Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

Surrender to the Heart of Jesus

Words by Fr. Raymond Thomas de Saint-Laurent (1879-1949)

O Divine Master, we would like to abandon ourselves permanently and entirely to Thy loving direction. We confide to Thee the care of our material future.

We do not know what this future, sombre with threats, reserves for us. But we abandon ourselves into the Hands of Thy Providence. We confide our concerns to Thy Heart. They are, at times, quite oppressive. But Thou art with us to soften them.

We confide our mortal miseries to Thy Mercy. Human frailty makes us fear our weakness. But Thou, Lord, shalt support us and preserve us from the great fall.

And, like Thy beloved Apostle who rested his head upon Thy breast, so also shall we rest upon Thy Sacred Heart; and, according to the words of the Psalmist, there shall we sleep in delicious Peace, because, O Jesus, we shall be rooted by Thee in unshakable Confidence.
